

Transport Sector Reform and Modernization (additional financing)

Locations

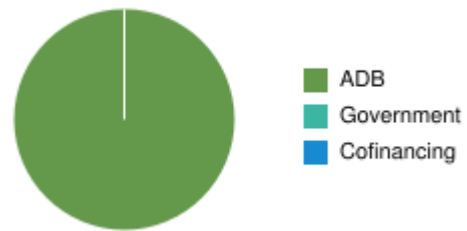

Details

Project	47087-001
Related Projects	Search
Type	TA
Sector	Transport
Country	Myanmar
Start	2017
End	2021
Status	Ongoing
Last Edited	05 Jul 2021

Funding

in US$('000)

ADB	2,000
Government	-
Cofinancing	-
Total	2,000

Photos

Picturesque tree-lined roads lead from Nyaung Shwe to neighboring communities around Inle Lake. This area is one of Myanmar's most popular tourist attractions.

Source: ADB Flickr

Concrete bridge links two sides of Nyaung Shwe. Thanks to its status as a major tourist attraction, Nyaung Shwe enjoys good road and highway infrastructure.

Source: ADB Flickr

Motorists wait for traffic to start moving in Yangon. Car usage is on the rise, causing much traffic congestion in the city.

Source: ADB Flickr

Commuters loading the customized pick-up truck, which serves as the usual public transport in Yangon. Over 300 public and private bus lines operate about 6,300 crowded buses around the city, carrying over 4.4 million passengers a day.

Source: ADB Flickr

Yangon residents board the Circular Train to get to the outskirts of the city. This local train system is heavily utilized by the populace, selling about 150,000 tickets daily.

Source: ADB Flickr

Source URL:

<https://www.greatermekong.org/projects/projects/transport-sector-reform-and-modernization-additional-financing-4998>

Disclaimer:

The boundaries, colors, denominations, and any other information shown on this map are not necessarily authoritative and do not imply any judgment on the legal status of any territory, or any endorsement or acceptance of such boundaries, colors, denominations, or information. The map uses open source interactive mapping tools commonly used by other international organizations.